Terms and Conditions

Global Bremont Watch Military and Special Projects Division Terms and Conditions

By placing an order with us, you are automatically accepting our Global Bremont Watch Military and Special Projects Division Terms and Conditions. To ensure the exclusivity and eligibility of all Bremont Military watch projects, a Bremont Military watch must be purchased by an authorised member of this specific organisation only and must not be bought with the intention of resale onto the open market within the 3 years warranty period. If this is the case, the watch warranty will automatically be void. We also reserve the right to refuse further military watch orders from a military customer who does not oblige with our Bremont Military and Special Projects Terms and Conditions.

For military watch projects, each service member placing an order will be asked to provide proof of military affiliation by using a military email address or providing information about service time and military base, a copy of a military ID card (without picture), or a copy of redacted DD-214 form or other relevant documentation. All military information provided will remain confidential.

Personal Engraving

All core timepieces bought directly from Bremont Military and Special Projects Division must feature a personal engraving to qualify for the subsidised military pricing quoted. Bremont reserves the right to reject an engraving request if it does not meet our engraving guidelines.

Payment

Cash, all major Credit/Debit Cards, Bankers Draft or BACS Transfer are all acceptable methods of payment. All goods remain the property of Bremont until paid for in full.

Cancellation Policy

Following deposit payment, an individual has 60 days to request a refund via telephone, email or in person. Refunds within this time are subject to a £25.00 cancellation transaction fee to cover any subsequent administrative expenses. After 60 days, the deposit payment is no longer refundable. Once an individual is informed that their order (watch) is complete, the individual has 90 days to complete full payment or propose a payment plan. Failure to complete payment for the finished product within 90 days of completion will result in cancellation of the order and loss of the deposit payment.
